

WILLS AND THE

American Public

THE ISSUE OF WILLS BECAME A NATIONAL TOPIC OF DISCUSSION AFTER PRINCE DIED ON APRIL 21, 2016. HE DID NOT HAVE A WILL.

GALLUP PERFORMED A POLL ON THE TOPIC FROM MAY 4 THROUGH MAY 8, 2016; HERE'S WHAT THEY FOUND.

OF AMERICANS HAVE A WILL

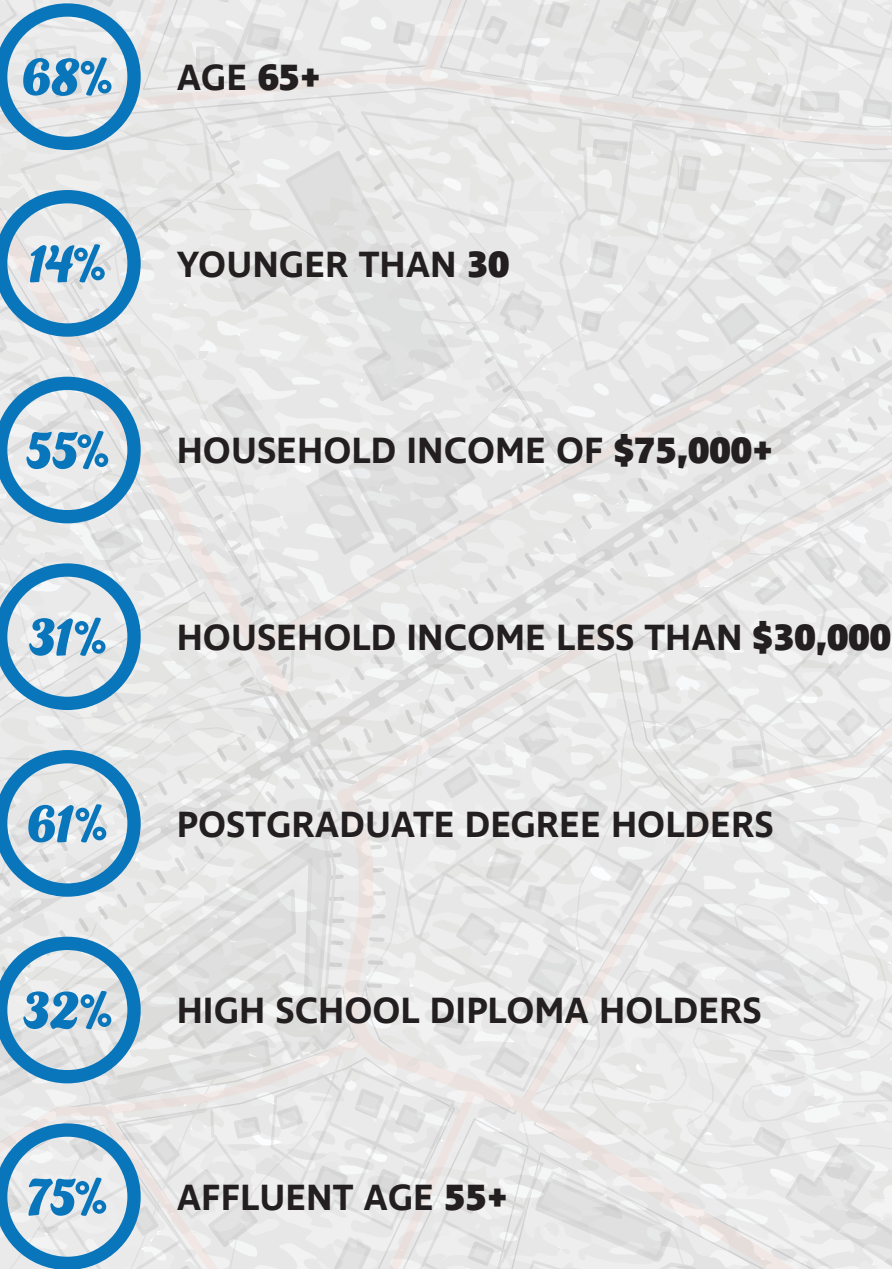

Gallup has twice previously surveyed the public regarding wills, once in 1990 and again in 2005.

2005 : 51%

The 2005 poll was conducted after the Terri Schiavo right-to-die controversy of that year. She did not have a will, therefor her husband's claim that she would want her feeding tube removed couldn't be confirmed, resulting in several court battles between her husband and her parents.

1990 : 48%

OTHER INTERESTING FIGURES FROM THE LATEST SURVEY

A ROCKET LAWYER SURVEY ASKED RESPONDENTS WHO DIDN'T HAVE A WILL THEIR REASONS

Don't Be Intestate (The Term for Passing Away Without a Will) Learn About Your Estate Planning Options

Call the Law Offices of David L. Carrier Today

1-800-317-2812