Food for the Body as well
as the Soul

You are cordially invited to attend the More than a Meal luncheon, prepared by Meals on Wheels Western Michigan. Our program features a compelling panel discussion moderated by Shelley Irwin of The WGUV Morning Show, as well as client stories about local hunger and isolation issues.

Nutritious food is essential to physical health. It is also a social magnet that draws people together and brings joy to life. We proudly serve up well-balanced, appetizing meals and meaningful friendships to seniors across West Michigan, supporting independence and well being.

This luncheon is complimentary; however, we hope that after hearing our stories, you will feel moved to give a gift in support of our mission.
